Volunteers help to pack food at Berjaya Times Square, Kuala Lumpur.

Joining hands to feed the poor and needy

KUALA LUMPUR: More than RM100,000 worth of food items were distributed to the poor and the needy in several states recently in conjunction with World Food Day for the second consecutive year.

Berjaya Corporation Bhd, through its youth empowerment initiative – Berjaya Youth programme and international hunger relief organisation Stop Hunger Now Charitable Association of Malaysia – joined forces for the second time to feed those in need.

The food items will benefit thousands of disaster victims, children with special needs, underprivileged indigenous community, among others.

Some 400 volunteers, mainly Berjaya staff and youths, came together last Saturday to pack the food items before handing them over to Kota Kinabalu South Rotary Club, Yayasan Kurang Upaya Kelantan, Sarawak Dayak Iban Association and the Malaysian Red Crescent Society.

Berjaya Corporate Communication senior general manager Judy Tan said this programme received an overwhelming support through the Berjaya Youth Facebook group and NGOs namely Nalanda Buddhist Society and Bandar Utama Dhamma Duta Youth. – by Karen Arukesamy
